Call to order: A monthly meeting of the Nokomis ATV Club was held in the town of Nokomis, Fire Department on May 15th, 2021 at 9:02 AM, with Larry Rydberg presiding, 26 members in attendance. Minutes were taken by Jim Cleary

Minutes from last meeting: Minutes were read by Jim Cleary, Motion to accept by Gregg Rummel, seconded by Dave Ebben, Motion passed.

Treasurer's report: Rita Meidam, gave the report. We have $44921 in savings and $6668 in checking.

Old Business:

Cruiser's Trail:

No movement from the DNR regarding the MOU. Trail completion looks to be in jeopardy for this year.

New Business:

Access to Lake Tomahawk:

Highway D to Rainbow RD is now open into Lake Tomahawk. All town Rds. are also open. The signage at the intersection of D and Rainbow is not the best, or none existent, so don't go past Rainbow on D, it's not open.

Oneida Co. ATV/UTV council:

LDF tribe is tentatively opening up all Town Rds. to the public.

The Burroughs Lake Trail will be closed sometime in July or August for repair.

Governors ATV/UTV council Changes: Recommending increasing max weight for UTV's to 3000lbs. Max width is still 65". No 2up riding on ATV's unless the machine is designed for it, it's the law.
