Mark Kercher was introduced as a new member.

Raffle Tickets: Jean indicated that sales are going well and that all remaining envelopes should be returned at the next meeting, August 17th.

Membership: Vicki gave a membership update: We currently have 234 members of which 22 are new. We currently have 85 business members, with two new members, Butcher and Baker and Somo Lake Resort, just added.

Club Ride: Jeff gave details for the ride to Z's Fork Horners on Wednesday, August 5th. The group will meet at Castaways at 10:00 and leave at 10:30. This will be a trail and road ride. A four choice menu will be provided prior to leaving on the ride. The group stop will stop at Winding Trails on the way back. A sign up sheet was provided.

Scavenger Hunt: Gladi reported that Scavenger Hunt plans are moving along. She reminded members that there will be two check in times, September 9th at B's Landing and September 12th at the Loop Hole. All details are listed on the poster. Music will play from 3:00-6:00. Some type of meal to purchase will be offered under the tent. Two additional workers are needed for the event at the Loop Hole. Clue maps were available.

Trail Maintenance: Jeff said additional signs have been put out on the Rondele trail which is now in good shape for riding. He also provided some information on purchasing a back blade for trail maintenance.

Christmas Party: Mallory reminded members that the Christmas Party will be held at the American Legion on December 5th from 2:00-4:43. Details will be coming later. She asked for additional volunteers to help plan and work the party. A sign up sheet was provided.

Tail Development: After providing an update, Dave indicated that basically the Highway 8 trail is on hold until the roundabout is put in in 2027 at which time the project can be revisited.

Trail Rides: Larry reported that the Trail Rides committee had met and tossed around some ideas. He asked for a show of hand in regard to how many would be interested in tailoring machines for an overnight ride. Response was favorable.

Regional Workshops: Larry asked if any members would be interested to attend the Northeast and Northwest Region workshops. The dates are August 8th and 22nd. Expenses would be covered by the club.

Member Comments: Rick Ross mentioned that the gray ribbons are available at Castaways for the Bethel fundraiser and that shirts are available at Simply Stitched.

50/50 drawing: Chris Garvin won $245.
